NOTE ABOUT SCASA: The Straight Chiropractic Academic Standards Association (SCASA) accredited Sherman College of Straight Chiropractic until Sherman gained accredited status with the Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE). Pennsylvania College of Straight Chiropractic and Southern California College of Chiropractic held candidate status with SCASA. The US Department of Education withdrew its recognition of SCASA effective 6/4/93. SCASA discontinued its accrediting activities December 31, 1995.

Reference to SCASA still exists in several state laws, please contact individual licensing boards for more information regarding their current position on graduates of schools accredited by or holding candidate status with SCASA while it was accrediting chiropractic programs.
